Mr Jordan Mechner
BRODERBUND SOFTWARE

Dear Genius

I thank you a lot for your valuable software production,

PRINCE OF PERSIA

which is full of excitements from level one to the lovely kiss of the princess to me , ROBERT GHANDOUR, reaching her after killing the grand Vizier JAAFAR in level 12 and most of his military in all the levels. The most three difficult levels 3, 8 and 12 are now so easy for me and the last time I kill the Grand Vizier Jaafar in 38 minutes after start.

Excitement in Graphics,
Excitement in Animation,
Excitement in Music,
Excitement in Story,
Excitement in Engineering,
Excitement in Tricks, The Skeleton, The Spirit..etc.
Excitement in Results, and thanks to your mouse who save me after a lot of troubles in level 8 and it deserves well to join me with my princess.

At end you name me the Prince of Persia. Perhaps I deserve it after this long trip to the princess, but truly you are the Prince of America and the world too.

You frighten me a lot, You excite me a lot, You Enjoy me a lot. A lot of thanks to you Jordan, to the programmers and to all your staff.

Sincerely,

ROBERT CAESAR GHANDOUR

Gentlemen;

I am a sixty year old man and just had the thrill of my life! - Forget about the first girl, that is nothing compared to saving the beautiful 'Princess of Persia'.

This is the first computer game that I have used, and as luck would have it, I stumbled on the best. The graphics are superb, the story line delightful (love that helpful white animal!) and the layout and production a wonderful, tightly woven artwork.

Please supply me withy your latest catalogue. Ok, so I am living on this beautiful tropical South Pacific island paradise. Please send the catalogue by AIRMAIL, otherwise it will get here in time for my funeral.

Say 'hello' to Mr Jordan Mechner. If he can produce something like this when he is 25 years, by the time he is 50 he will have surpassed Walt Disney.

Thank you again for a most enjoyable time

Yours very truly

H. Guntram Boie
